S. troops in garrison at those places were to be immediately transferred to Texas, to support Gen. Taylor. Other troops from the west are on their way south. This call is said to have been made on account of Gen. Gaines having received "authentic information to the effect that ten thousand Mexican troops were within eight days march of Gen. Taylor, who was posted at St. Joseph's Island." Later intelligence does not correborate the latter information. It is also said that Gen. Gaines demanded 1500 troops from the Texian Executive. The Union says that "Gen. Gaines has received no authority, as far as we are advised, to make this requisition upon the Governor of Louisiana, though he has acted, doubtless, under the strong impulse of patriotic feelings." The command of the "army of observation" is specially entrusted to Gen. Taylor.

Troops are being concentrated from all quarters to meet any emergency that may arise.

The following embraces all the latest information, with the particulars on which so many war paragraphs are founded :

From the New Orleans Picayune, Aug. 19. FROM MATAMORAS.

The steam schooner Augusta, Captain Gillette, arrived here yesterday from the mouth of the Rio Grande, whence she sailed on the 12th inst. A letter has been received in town by her, from a responsible source in Matamoras, dated the 6th instant, which throws some faint light upon the movements in that quarter.

The general in command at Matamoras received information, through Senor Arrangoiz, of the intended movement of the troops of the United States upon the "disputed territory." We do not know whether this general be the same Senor Garcia who, some weeks since being ordered to build a fort to protect the city, "selected a soft spot, where the digging was easy, and set his men to work." We presume it is the same man, as we learn that every point on the Rio Grande assailable by our troops has been declared by him to be nearly, if not per fectly, protected.

The information which we gave in this paper of the 1st inst. is confirmed by this arrival. General Arista, with his starving, unpaid, and deserting troops, amount ing to about 3,000 men, whom we left at Monterey, was advancing east, and had reached on the 12th inst. within a day's march of Matamoras. General Paredes, whom we mentioned as being at San Luis Potosi, but about to march on Monterey with four or five thousand men, is now said to be actually on the move for the latter city whence he will continue his route to Matamoras, or other points higher up on the river. General Gaona, too, is on his way to the same frontier line, with 3,000 troops, as is reported. These three bodies compose the army of 10,000 men, we presume, of whose advance upon Gen. Taylor so many idle rumors have been circulated. That they are not as yet quite prepared to measure arms with - the United States troops, and do not intend at present crossing the Rio Grande, we think may be inferred from the facts, that no general-in-chief has yet been named for the conduct of a campaign, nor have any contracts yet been entered into for provisions and other necessary supplies for so large a force.

Information has been received by the Augusta, that Gen. Bustamente has been ordered by the supreme government into New Mexico, but in what capacity we are not informed. LATER FROM TEXAS .- We had three arrivals yesterday from Texas. The schooner Mary left Matagorda on the 13th inst., and reports that the schooner Two Friends, from this port, bound to Aransas, took a pilot on the 12th inst. off Pass Cavallo. The schooner Patriot, from this port, in crossing the bar at Pass Cavallo, on the 12th inst. ran on Red Fish island, and bilged. Her cargo would be saved in a damaged state. On the 16th inst., in latitude 28 peg. 19 min., longitude 91 deg. 37 min., the Mary spoke the United States ship Falmouth, in company with the brig Lawrence, on a cruise-all well.

THE SHOEMAKERS. BY JOHN G. WHITTIER. Ho! workers of the old time styled The Gentle Craft of Leather ! Young brothers of the ancient guild, Stand forth once more together ! Call out again your long array In the olden, merry manner; Once more on gay St. Crispin's day

Fling out your blazoned banner ! Rap, rap! upon the well-worn stone How falls the polished hammer ! Rap, rap! the measured sound has grown A quick and merry clamor. Now shape the sole; now deftly curl The glossy vamp around it, And bless the while the bright-eyed girl Whose gentle fingers bound it ! For you along the Spanish Main

A hundred keels are ploughing: For you the Indian on the plain His lasso-coil is throwing: For you deep glens with hemlock dark The woodman's fire is lighting; For you upon the oak's grey back The woodman's axe is smiting. For you from Carolina's pine The resin gum is stealing, For you the dark-eyed Florentine Her silken skein is reeling:

For you the dizzy goatherd roams His rugged Alpine ledges; For you found all her shepherd homes Bloom England's thorny hedges! The foremost still by day or night On moated mound or heather, Where'er the need of trampled right Brought toiling men together, Where the free burghers from the wall

Than yours, at Freedom's trumpet call, No craftsmen rallied faster! Let forlings sneer, let fools deride, Ye heed no id e scorner, Free hands and hearts are still your pride, And duty done, your honor. Ye dare to trust for honest fame The jury Time empannels. And leave to Tru h each noble name Which glorifies your annals.

Defied the mail-clad master,

Thy songs, Hans Sach, are living yet, In strong and hearty German, And Bloomfield's lay and Gifford's wit, And the rare good sense of Sherman; Still from his book, a mystic seer, The soul of Benham teaches, And England's priesteraft shakes to hear Of Fox's leathern breeches. The Foot is yours: where'er it falls It treads your well-wrought leather, On earthern floor, in marble halls, On carpet, or on heather.

Still there the sweetest charm is found Of matron grace or vestal's, As Hebe's foot bore nectar round Among the old celestials! Rap, rap !- your stout and bluff brogan, With footsteps slow and weary, May wander where the the sky's blue span Shuts down upon the Prairie. Ye slippers shine on Beauty's foot,

By Saratoga's fountain, Or lead, like snow-flakes falling mute, The dance on Catskill mountain ! The red brick to the mason's hand, The brown earth to the tiller's The shoe in yours shall wealth command Like fairy Cinderilla's ! As they who shunned the household maid,

Beheld the crown upon her, So all shall see your toil repaid With hearth and home and honor. Then let the toast be freely quaffed In WATER cool and brimming: " All honor to the good old Craft, Its merry men and women !"

Call out again your long array In the old time's pleasant manner; Once more on gay St. Crispin's day Fling out his blazoned banner EDUCATION OF CHILDREN .- Why have we so many Mentgomery,
